ORDERS relating to the Precedence of the Royal Regiment and Troops of Horse Guards, 1675.

CHARLES R.

Our will and Pleasure is, That these following Orders be duly observed by the respective Officers of the three Troopes of our Horse Guards, and of the Troopes of our Regiment of Horse Guards, commanded by Our right trusty and right welbeloved Cousin and Councelour, Aubrey, Earle of Oxford, as followeth:—

1. When the Troopes march with their Collours, That then the Officers of the same degree doe command according to the senioritie of the Troopes respectively.
2. When they are commanded out in Parties, the Officers also of the same degree are to command according to the date of their Commissions.
3. That Our owne Regiment of Horse Guards above-mentioned doe keep its Post, whatever change may be of the Colonell; and all the Officers thereof, of like same degree, doe take place according to the dates of their Commissions.

And it is our further Will and Pleasure, that Our most deare and most intirely beloved Sonn, James, Duke of Monmouth, doe communicate these Our Orders, by sending Copies of them, attested with his hand, to the Colonells and Captaines of the three Troopes of our Horse Guards, and to the Colonell of Our said Regiment of Horse Guards, to be by them communicated to the respective Officers under their command.

Given at Our Court at Whitehall, the 24th day of June, 1675.

By His Majesty's Command,

(Signed) J. WILLIAMSON.

No. 6.

ORDERS relating to the General Precedence of the Army, 1675.

CHARLES R.

For the preventing of all Questions and Disputes that might arise for or concerning the Ranks of the severall Regiments, Troopes, and companies, w<sup>ch</sup> now are or at any time hereafter shall be employed in O<sup>r</sup> Service, and of the severall Officers and Commanders of the same, as well upon Service and in the Field, as in all Councells of Warr, and other Military occasions, where they shall be called to appeere in their respective Qualities, Wee have thought good to issue out these following Rules and Directions, viz<sup>t</sup>.—

1. First, as to the Foot, the Reg<sup>t</sup> of Guards take place of all other Reg<sup>ts</sup>, and the Col: to be always reckoned and take place as the first Foot Col: , the Coldstreame Reg<sup>t</sup> of Guards to take place next ; Our most deare and most intirely beloved Brother, James, Duke of Yorke's Regiment, immediately after ; and all other Colonells to take place according to the dates of their Commissions.

2. That the severall Regiments that are not of our Guards take place, according to their respective senioritys, from the time they were raised, so as that no Regiment is to loose its precedency by the death of their Colonell.

3. As to the Horse, That the three Troopes of Guards take place before all others ; that the Captaines take their Rankes as oldest Colonells of Horse: the Lieutenants, as oldest Majors; the Cornetts, as eldest Captaines of Horse; and the Guydons, as youngest Captaines of Horse. That when the Troopes march with their Collours, the Officers of the same degree doo comand according to the senioritie of the Troopes respectively; but when they are commanded out in Parties, the Officers of the same degree are to comand according to the dates of their Commissions. That Our Owne Reg<sup>t</sup> of Horse take place immediately after the Guards, and the Col: of it have precedency immediately after the Captaines of the Guards, and before all other Colonells of Horse, what ever change may be of the Colonell; and all the Officers thereof, of like or the same degree, doe take place according to the dates of their Commissions.

4. That the eldest Colonells doe in all occasions comand; and when there shal be noe Colonell upon the place, then the Lieutenant-Colonell of the eldest Reg<sup>t</sup>; and in like manner, where noe Lieut:-Col: the Maj<sup>r</sup>, and soe downe to the Captaines and other inferior Officers.

5. That all Officers under the condition of a Generall Officer, when they shall happen to be put into any Guarrison, shall, during their being there, obey the Gov<sup>r</sup> of the same, or his deputies.

And it is Our further Will and Pleasure, That our most deare and most intirely beloved Sonn, James, Duke of Monmouth, doe communicate these Our Orders, by sending Copies of them, attested wth his hand, to the Coll<sup>s</sup> and Cap<sup>ts</sup> of the three Troopes of Our Horse Guards, and to the Col<sup>s</sup> of Our severall Reg<sup>ts</sup> of Horse and Foot, and Gov<sup>rs</sup> of Our Guarrisons, to be by them communicated to the respective Officers under their comand.

Given at Our Court at Whitehall, the first day of December, 1675.

By His Ma<sup>ty</sup> Comand,

(Signed) J. WILLIAMSON.

No. 7.

ORDER to draw Six Men out of each Troop of the EARL OF OXFORD's Regiment, to form a Troop for Captain WYND, 1677.

CHARLES R.

To the Earl of Oxford, to order the Troops of his Regt (not quartered in the North) to draw 6 men out of each Troope for Cap<sup>t</sup> Wynd, and recruiting all the Troops to 60, to march by the 1st of March, 1677.

Right trusty and Right well-beloved Cousin and Councillor, Wee greet you well. The occasions of our service requiring another troope of Horse to be raised, towards which We would have 6 men, with their Horses and arms, sent out of each of the five Troops of our Regiment of Horse, under your command, that are quartered in other places than York, and Northumberland; Our will and pleasure therefore is, that you give order for the drawing out and discharging of six Soldiers apeece, with their Horses and arms, out of the said five troops respectively; and for sending the men, with their horses and arms, so drawn out, to our city of Chichester, to Captain William Winde (who is to command the said new troop), or to his Lieutenant, or other Officer of his Troop, who will be there to receive them, that they may be entertained therein. You are also to order the Chiefe Officer present with each of the said five Troops to pay them off until the 1st of March next, exclusive, from which time they are to be mustered and paid as of the said Captaine William Wynd his Troop. And you are likewise to give order to the respective Captains of your Regiment, and your own Captain-Lieutenant, that they recruit their Troops respectively to threescore Soldiers apeece by the 1st of March next, at which time the additional establishment for them will commence; and We doe bid you very heartily farewell.

Given at our Court at Whitehall, the 31st day of January, 1677.

By his Ma<sup>ty</sup>s Command,

WILLIAMSON.

AN ORDER to the Master-General of the Ordnance to provide Arms for Captain WYND'S Troop, 167 $\frac{7}{8}$ .

Right trusty and well-beloved Councillor, We greet you well. We, having given order for the recruiting of the respective troops of our own Regiment of Horse Guards, under the command of our Right trusty and Right entirely beloved Cousin and Councillor, Aubrey, Earl of Oxford, with tenn Soldiers apeece to make them up to threescore troopers apeece, besides officers; and being informed that the arms of two Soldiers in each of the said troops, who were many years since discharged, (because their pay was allowed to their said Colonel, which is now discontinued), are lost or mislaid, and five of the said troops having by our order furnished 6 men apeece, with their arms, towards Captain Wind's troop, Our will and pleasure therefore is, that out of our stores belonging to the Office of our Ordnance, you cause one hundred and twenty-six carbines, with one hundred and twenty-six suites of arms,—to wit, Backs, Breasts, and Potts, to be delivered unto our trusty and well-beloved Sir Francis Compton, K<sup>t</sup>. Major of the said Regiment, or to such Officer or Officers as he shall appoint, for the arming of twelve troopers in each of the Eight Troops for the said Regiment, and for the arming of six men apeece, to be taken into the said five troops in lieu of the arms of the men furnished to Captain Wind's troop as aforesaid; for which this, with the indentures or receipts for the same, shall be your sufficient warrant and discharge.

Given at our Court at Whitehall the 13th day of February, 167 $\frac{7}{8}$ .

By his Ma.<sup>ty</sup>'s Command,

WILLIAMSON.

To our Right trusty and well-beloved Councillor, Sir Thomas Chicheley, our Master-General of our Ordnance.

CERTIFICATE relative to the Appointment of a Chirurgion's Mate to attend a Party of the Royal Regiment of Horse Guards designed for Foreign Service, 1678.

I doe most humbly certify, that in consideration of a party designed for Flanders out of His Ma<sup>ty</sup>s Regiment of Horse Guards, to be commanded by Major Sir Francis Compton, upon the first forces that were sent thither, Mr. Sackville Whittle, Chirurgion to the said Regiment of Horse, had order to provide an able Chirurgion to attend that party as his Mate, and did contract and agree with an able Chirurgion pursuant thereunto, on the 14th of March last past, from which day the said Mate is by contract to enter into his Majesty's pay ; and provision being made by the late Establishment for the said Mate only, to commence from the 1st of May inst<sup>t</sup>, the said Chirurgion will hereby fall short of pay due to him by the said contract, from the said 14th day of March inclusive to the said 1st of May, being forty-eight days, which, according to His Majesty's Establishment, will amount to Eight pounds Eight shillings.

Given under my hand the 31st day of May, 1678.

JOHN KNIGHT.

AN ORDER relative to the Appointment and Pay of an Adjutant, 1684.

Forasmuch as We have thought fitt to appoint our Trusty and well-beloved David Lloyd, Esq<sup>r</sup>, to be Adjutant in our Royal Reg<sup>t</sup> of Horse G<sup>ds</sup>; and there being no pay allotted by our Establishment of our Forces and Garrisons for that Imployment, Our Will and Pleasure is, that one Soldier's pay of each of the Eight Troops of that Regiment be allowed from the date hereof, in lieu of pay to the said Adjutant; and that you allow thereof, in such manner as aforesaid, without his producing to you any Soldiers, or the names of any Soldiers to be mustered for that purpose, so that not above one Soldier's pay in each of the said Troops be reserved on this occasion, for which this shall be a sufficient warrant.

By his Ma<sup>ties</sup> Command,

SUNDERLAND.
