U. S. GEOLOGICAL AND GEOGRAPHICAL SURVEY

OF

THE TERRITORIES.

F. V. HAYDEN, GEOLOGIST-IN-CHARGE.

SECOND EDITION.

(REVISED TO DECEMBER 31, 1876.)

WASHINGTON:
GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE.

1877. 16.

Office U. S. Geological and Geographical
Survey of the Territories
Washington, December 21, 1876.

The present catalogue is intended to give an enumeration of all the publications of the United States Geological and Geographical Survey of the Territories issued to the present time. In order that they may convey an accurate idea of the work done, the captions of the several parts of each volume are also given under the general title of the volume. The titles are interrupted by vertical bars (|) to exhibit the adjustment of the typography on the respective title pages.

The Geological and Geographical Survey of the Territories, the publication of which is conducted by the Survey, is published in the following departments: Geology, Palaeontology, and Natural History, and also in the formation of a library of reference for the use of the Survey of which the following are the titles:

It is gratifying to see the attention given to the Survey by the various departments of the Government, and the interest which they manifest in its progress. It is also gratifying to see the interest which the various departments of the Government manifest in its progress, and the interest which they manifest in its progress.

The interest which the various departments of the Government manifest in its progress, and the interest which they manifest in its progress.

Individuals or societies who desire to be placed on the list of subscribers to the Survey should send their names to the Superintendent of the Survey, U. S. Geological and Geographical Survey, Washington, D. C.

A careful review will be kept of the addresses of all the correspondents of the Survey. Societies, libraries, or persons engaged in active scientific or educational pursuits, to receive the publications of the Survey will receive a copy by communicating their names.

A few of the publications enumerated in this catalogue are either out of print or nearly so. Some will doubtless be reprinted. If persons or correspondents who desire to complete their series of the publications of the Survey will indicate to the Geologist-in-charge the missing volumes, they will be sent without delay.

OFFICE U. S. GEOLOGICAL AND GEOGRAPHICAL
SURVEY OF THE TERRITORIES,
Washington, December 31, 1876.

The present catalogue is intended to give an enumeration of all the publications of the United States Geological and Geographical Survey of the Territories issued to the present time. In order further to convey an adequate idea of the work done, the captions of the several parts of each volume are also given under the general titles of the volumes. The titles are interrupted by vertical bars (|), to exhibit the adjustment of the typography on the respective title-pages.

The Geologist-in-charge is desirous of securing, by exchange, the publications of foreign countries on geology, palæontology, and natural history generally, to aid in the formation of a library of reference, for the use of the Survey of which he has charge.

He avails himself of this opportunity again to ask those persons or societies that may receive the publications of the Survey to reciprocate, by sending to him such of their own publications as they may feel disposed, and he believes that he can assure them an ample return, either in books or specimens, or both.

The reports of surveys, with maps, charts, and sections, transactions of societies, or the publications of individuals engaged in scientific studies, are much desired as works of reference.

Individuals or societies who may look favorably upon the above proposition can send all packages, through the Smithsonian Institution, to the address of Dr. F. V. HAYDEN, U. S. Geologist, Washington, D. C.

A careful record will be kept of the addresses of all the correspondents of the Survey. Societies, libraries, or persons engaged in active scientific investigation desiring to receive the publications of the Survey will confer a favor by communicating their wishes.

A few of the publications enumerated in this catalogue are either rare or entirely out of print. Some will doubtless be reprinted. If societies or correspondents who desire to complete their series of the publications of the Survey will indicate to the Geologist-in-charge the missing volumes, they will be sent without delay.
