NEW WORKS

PUBLISHED BY WHITEHEAD & CO. 76, FLEET STREET.

THE YOUNG LADY'S EQUESTRIAN MANUAL:—With an Historical Introduction, and Sixty Picturesque and Practical Illustrations. A complete Book of Instruction, calculated, without other aid, to render any Lady a safe, graceful, and accomplished Horsewoman. Price 4s. fcap. 8vo., fancy binding, gilt.

“As a text-book of rules for the side-saddle, we know none that at all equals this little treatise.”—Sporting Review.

“It will be found very acceptable in the way of advice and instruction.”—Literary Gazette.

“The treatise will be useful to such as desire to dispense with the service of a professional riding-master.”—Spectator.

“Outside, it is all azure and gold; inside, it is full of instruction.”—Age.

“It is written in a chaste, correct, and classical style, quite beyond works of the sort in general.”—Conservative Journal.

PARLOUR MAGIC:—A Juvenile Manual of novel and amusing Phenomena, and Scientific Recreations for the Family Circle, expressly calculated to enable the ingenious Youth to entertain his friends, and, at the same time, to improve himself. With numerous illustrative Engravings on wood. Price 5s. in an ornamental binding.

“There is such a mixture of nature and art, science and sleight of hand, that there is something to charm all ages, and, what is more to the purpose, much to instruct under the guise of amusement, as well as to excite curiosity and a thirst for knowledge in the youthful mind, which may be made subservient to the highest purposes of education.”—Morning Post.

Also, New Editions of the following elegant Presents:

THE YOUNG LADY'S BOOK:—(The Fourth Edition, elegantly bound in embroidered Crimson Silk, price 21s.) forming a COMPLETE REPERTORY OF EVERY GRACEFUL AND IMPROVING PURSUIT, EXERCISE, AND ACCOMPLISHMENT, that contributes to the perfection of the female character, and constitutes the accomplished English Gentlewoman.

ITS EMBELLISHMENTS comprise Forty-five Subject Pieces, and upwards of Seven Hundred Engravings, in the very best style of the Art. The Volume is elegantly bound in embroidered Silk, with Gilt Leaves. The facings present a striking imitation of the most beautiful Mechlin Lace. An Ornamental Title-page, beautifully executed in burnished Gold, is also among its decorative novelties.

“Twenty years ago,” says the Literary Gazette, “all the talents in England could not have produced such a work.”

THE ALBUM ORNÉ:—In extra royal 4to, splendidly bound in Morocco and Gold; with an elegant Title in Gold and Colours, and imitative Mechlin Lace facings, of exquisite fidelity of resemblance. Price £3 : 3s.: and in watered Silk and Gold, price £2 : 2s.; comprising several hundred varieties of Ornamental Borders, in Gold, in Colours, and perforated, for the display of Drawings, Prints, &c., the reception of Literary Compositions, and the other usual contents of a Lady's Album.

THE BOYS OWN BOOK:—The most acceptable present ever devised for youth, embracing the sports and exercises of out-door enjoyment,—the pastimes of a winter's fire-side,—and the recreations of science. Price 8s. 6d. in ornamental boards; and 10s. 6d. handsomely bound in Arabesque embossed Morocco, with gilt edges, and embellished with upwards of 300 Engravings.

FLOWERS OF FABLE:—Expressly selected for the instruction and amusement of Youth. Embellished with One Hundred and Eighty Engravings on wood, price 4s. in embossed cloth. Second Edition.

“One of the prettiest, and most amusing and instructive publications to allure the young mind, through the attractions of clever design and admirable engraving, to the pursuit of useful knowledge. As a book to give to children of all ages, we could not point out a more welcome present. The Fables, from ancient to modern, foreign and native authors, are judiciously selected; indeed, the ‘Flowers of Fable’ is a perfect parterre of beauty and fine odour in every way.”—Literary Gazette.
